

weddingbells

weddingbells.ca

about Weddingbells

Weddingbells is the modern, savvy, style-conscious Canadian bride-to-be's authority on all aspects of wedding planning, including: fashion, beauty, reception details, registry and honeymoon travel. Weddingbells publishes six different editions twice annually, targeting 11 different regional areas across the country.

editorial internships

Weddingbells offers two full-time editorial internships, which run on a three-month basis. Post-grad and post-secondary students are eligible to apply. Duties include, but are not limited to, fact checking, writing for the website and magazine, copy editing, proofreading, administrative tasks, and assisting at photo shoots. Candidates must possess exceptional writing skills, have the ability to multi-task, display great initiative, and be very organized. To be considered, please e-mail your resumé, a cover letter outlining your interest and availability, and the assignment below to rdelarosa@weddingbells.ca.

Assignment: In 150 words or less, write an article recommending a Canadian wedding vendor.

editorial internship dates

Summer May to July

Fall August to October

Winter November to January

Spring February to April

(*Lengths of internships are subject to change.)

art internships

Weddingbells offers part-time and full-time internships throughout the year. Candidates must have a keen eye for detail and a strong creative background. Knowledge of Photoshop is a must. InDesign and Illustrator are added assets. To apply, please send your resumé, a cover letter outlining your interest and availability, and a sample of your creative work to jhaskett@weddingbells.ca.

St. Joseph
MEDIA